Numb. 13442.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 21, to Tuesday July 24, 1792.

Whitehall, July 24.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, of the Archdeacon and Chapter, and of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff, humbly tender to your Majeſty our ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon, of Attachment to your Family, of Zeal for the Principles of the Revolution, and of our utter Abhorrence of every Attempt to ſubvert the Conſtitution, in Church and State, then eſtabliſhed, and ſince then improved.

The Improvements which the Conſtitution has received in the Judges being rendered more independent, in the Mode of determining conteſted Elections, in the Repeal of certain Penal Statutes reſpecting Proteſtant and Catholic Diſſenters, in aſcertaining the Rights of Juries, and in other Ways, have been more numerous and important during your Majeſty's Reign than during the Reigns of all your Predeceſſors ſince the Revolution. We are thankful for what has been done, and without encouraging improper Modes of Innovation, in other Matters ſtill perhaps requiring an Amendment, we truſt that what is wanting, to render our Conſtitution perfect and permanent, will be accompliſhed by the deliberative Wiſdom of the Legiſlature rather than by the raſh Violence of democratic Faction.

When we compare our Situation, as Citizens of a free State, with that of thoſe who are either ſtruggling for that Liberty which we enjoy, or groaning under that Slavery which we are in no Danger of, we cannot but ſet the higheſt Value on that Form of Civil Government, from which our Happineſs is derived; and we beg Leave, in the moſt ſincere and ſolemn Manner, to declare to your Majeſty, that in Proportion to this our Eſtimation of it's Worth, will be our Zeal for the Preſervation of the Conſtitution.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Rocheſter, impreſſed with a grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Care and Attention to maintain and preſerve inviolate all the Civil and Religious Rights and Privileges happily eſtabliſhed in theſe Kingdoms at the Glorious Revolution, have nevertheleſs ſeen, with equal Abhorrence and Concern, the ſeditious Attempts of certain diſaffected Perſons to diſturb the regular Order of Government, to counteract the pernicious Conſequences whereof your Majeſty, in your paternal Care and Wiſdom, hath been pleaſed to iſſue your Royal Proclamation, which cannot but induce your Majeſty's faithful Subjects to co-operate, in their ſeveral Situations, with your gracious Endeavours to preſerve and uphold our free and well-conſtituted Government.

We, therefore, fully ſenſible of your Majeſty's zealous and conſtant Attention to the Public Welfare, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as Miniſters of the Goſpel, it ſhall be our earneſt Endeavour, as it is our bounden Duty, to inſtil into the Minds of thoſe entruſted to our Care the true Principles of Religion, the Obedience and Subordination which that that enjoins, and a due Senſe of Gratitude to Almighty God for the Proſperity which He permits us to enjoy, and, at the ſame Time, to call upon them to join with us in our ſincere Prayers, that your Majeſty may long continue to be the Guardian and Protector of a loyal, free, and contented People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, in the City of Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter, impreſſed with a moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's ever watchful Care and Attention to maintain and preſerve inviolate all the Religious and Civil Rights and Privileges happily eſtabliſhed in theſe Kingdoms at the Glorious Revolution, have ſeen with equal Abhorrence and Concern, the malicious and daring Attempts of certain diſloyal and diſaffected Perſons, to diſturb the well-eſtabliſheed Order of Government, by printing and induſtriouſly diſperſing, throughout the Capital and other populous Parts of the Kingdom, and even through ſome of the public Schools and Seminaries, divers wicked and ſeditious Writings, the manifeſt Purpoſe whereof is the Alteration or Subverſion of the preſent happy Form of Government both in Church and State: We therefore, in the public Station your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to place us, being actuated by the pureſt Principles of Religion and Loyalty, do moſt gratefully acknowledge, and will moſt diligently obey and inculcate the very ſeaſonable and wiſe Directions enjoiaed in your Royal Proclamation; humbly beſeeching Almighty God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Juſtice, that, after a long and proſperous Reign of your Majeſty over a loyal and grateful People, there never may be wanting a Prince of your Royal Houſe to continue the Bleſſings of the preſent Conſtitution to the lateſt Poſterity.

Dated at our Chapter Houſe at Weſtminſter, under our Common Seal, the 18th of July, in the Year of our Lord 1792.

J. Rocheſter,
Dean of Weſtminſter.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Pembroke.

SIRE,

DEEPLY impreſſed with the Senſe of your Majeſty's unremitted Attention to the Happineſs of your People, we beg Permiſſion to approach your Throne with our Acknowledgements for the late Inſtance of your paternal Regard in your Majeſty's gracious Proclamation.

Without aſſuming to determine on the Plans of Government to be adopted or rejected by other independent Communities, we avow, on a Conviction of it's Excellence, our ſtrong Attachment to our own peculiar Conſtitution in Church and State. We exult, Sire, in a Syſtem in which Strength and Permanence ariſe from mutual Dependency and Control; in which general Harmony reſults from Subordination of Parts; in which Difference of Condition ſupplies the Motive and the Reward of Induſtry and Merit; in which, in ſhort, the Pyramid of Liberty, from a Baſe, extending over the whole State, aſcends and narrows to a ſingle Stone, which crowns and gives Integrity to the Building.

With theſe Sentiments, Sire, we regard with Contempt every Endeavour to ſhake the Steadineſs of our Loyalty, as Citizens of Great Britain and Subjects of your Majeſty's mild Government. Happy as we are, we are not diſpoſed to hazard the Poſſeſſion of certain in the Purſuit of viſionary Happineſs. We are not, Sire, to be tempted by the fallacious Glare of theoretic Perfection, from the ſolid Footing of Experience, into the trackleſs and dangerous Wilderneſs of Experiment.

We approach you then, Sire, with Hearts firmly attached to your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe, and we unite our Voice with the general Suffrage of Britain in Favour of that particular Scheme of Government from which, as from their immediate Source, flow the numerous Bleſſings which we enjoy; Bleſſings of Order and Freedom, of National Affluence and Greatneſs.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council Men, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordweſt, at the Guildhall aſſembled the 7th July, 1792, purſuant to public Notice.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, to expreſs our ſincere Acknowledgements for your gracious Proclamation, which breathes the true Spirit of Conſtitutional Liberty, and is ſo expreſſive of that paternal Attention which your Majeſty has conſtantly ſhewn to the Peace and Happineſs of your Subjects.

If we take a View of the ſurrounding Nations, and compare their ſeveral Situations with the flouriſhing State to which our own has happily arrived under the Auſpices of your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, we cannot help lamenting that there are Men exiſting who have been ſo daring as to diſperſe factious and ſeditious Publications in this Kingdom, for no other Purpoſe than that of undermining the moſt perfect of all political Conſtitutions.

Thus circumſtanced, and truly ſenſible that the Peace and Proſperity of all well-regulated Kingdoms depend, under Divine Providence, upon Obedience to the Laws and due Subordination among the various Orders of Men, it becomes our Duty, as well as Inclination, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours to detect and prevent the evil Effects of open Violence and ſecret Machinations, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign the happy Sovereign of an affectionate, grateful and free People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Peebles.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply ply of the County of Peebles venerating the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and having a juſt Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy, and of the general Happineſs and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Subjects under your mild and auſpicious Reign, are met together to expreſs our Deteſtation of thoſe inflammatory and ſeditious Writings which of late have been publiſhed, under the falſe Colour of Reform, but with the wicked Deſign of diſſeminating Diſtruſt, and creating Diſcontent in the Minds of your faithful Subjects againſt the Conſtitution and your Majeſty's Government.

We beg Leave to return your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for your Royal Proclamation, ſo well calculated to diſcourage and prevent a Continuance of ſuch malignant and wicked Practices; and we truſt, under Divine Providence, that the Conſtitution as by Law eſtabliſhed will, under your Majeſty's paternal Care, and the paternal Care of your Royal Succeſſors, long continue to ſecure to the People that National Happineſs and Proſperity they now enjoy, and be an impregnable Bulwark againſt ſuch wicked Deſigns as your Majeſty's Royal Proclamation is intended to reſiſt and defeat.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Attachment to your Perſon, Family, and Government; and it is our moſt earneſt Wiſh and Prayer, that your Majeſty may long live in Health to enjoy the Happineſs naturally reſulting from the Proſperity of the Kingdom, under your wiſe and benign Government; and that your Majeſty may tranſmit to Poſterity, unimpaired, our preſent Conſtitution, ſo deſervedly admired by all Nations.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Peebles, the 30th Day of June, 1792 Years.

Elibank, Præſes.

Whitehall, July 24.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, the Members for the County and City of Hereford, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the ſaid County.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly entreat your Majeſty to permit us to expreſs our Aſſurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and to thank your Majeſty for your late Royal Proclamation, aſſuring you of our warmeſt and moſt grateful Senſe of your conſtant Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of all your Subjects.

Senſible as we are of the many unexampled Bleſſings which we actually enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, and the happy Conſtitution eſtabliſhed within theſe Realms, and from which thoſe Bleſſings are derived, we feel with the higheſt Satisfaction and Confidence that every Attempt to ſubvert it will be totally counteracted and defeated, by the firm and united Loyalty to your Majeſty, and a perfect Reliance on the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, which is at this Time ſo prevalent in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects.

That the Conſtitution, which we ſo deſervedly revere, be tranſmitted to the lateſt Poſterity, and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in Peace over a free and united People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Tranſmitted by Richard Chambers, Eſq; High Sheriff of the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wiſbech, conſcious of the Bleſſings we enjoy under the invaluable Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms, and grateful for the juſt and equal Adminiſtration of your Majeſty's Government, humbly beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's late moſt ſeaſonable Proclamation.

We have beheld with Grief and Alarm the Attempts made by deſperate and factious Men, under the ſpecious Pretext of philoſophical Diſcuſſion, to propagate a Theory utterly ſubverſive of all Order and of the Principles of all Government.

Favoured by Providence with a King and Conſtitution deſervedly Objects of our Love and Veneration, we are bound to honour the one by a due Submiſſion to his Authority, and to preſerve the other from ſpeculative Innovation And we humbly beg Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty, that, in our ſeveral Stations, we will diſcountenance and repreſs all Attempts which may be made to weaken and unſettle the Allegiance of our Fellow Subjects, whether by deluſive Reaſonings, or by the actual Violation of the Public Tranquillity.

[Tranſmitted by John Mayer, Eſq; Town Bailiff.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſbytery of Fordoun, County of Kincardine, North Britain.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Fordoun, in Preſbytery aſſembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne, expreſſing our Concern to perceive the ſeditious Attempts of evil-minded and deſigning Men to ſpread abroad and ſow in the Minds of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects Principles which we conſider as ſubverſive of our happy Conſtitution, and tending to introduce Diſorder and Confuſion into theſe Kingdoms, which have flouriſhed ſo much under the Influence of your Majeſty's Government. Poſſeſſed of theſe Sentiments, we return your Majeſty our ſincere and united Thanks for your Majeſty's late gracious Proclamation againſt ſeditious Pamphlets and Writings. Truſting that any Reformation which may be found neceſſary will be effectuated at a proper Seaſon, and in a conſtitutional Manner, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to repreſs a licentious Spirit, and to

to inſtil Principles of Loyalty and Subordination among the People under our Care. It is our earneſt Prayer to Almighty God, that your Majeſty may long ſway the Sceptre over theſe Kingdoms, and that the Bleſſings of Liberty, Civil and Religious, may be tranſmitted, under your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family, to the lateſt Poſterity.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Preſbytery, at Fordoun, this 11th Day of July, 1792.

David Forbes, Moderator.

[Tranſmitted by the Rev. Mr. Forbes.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Royal Borough of Wigtown, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Royal Borough of Wigtown, in Common Council aſſembled, deſire moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of extreme Satisfaction and Gratitude for the ſalutary Meaſure of the late Proclamation, which muſt check and diſappoint the Wiſhes and Deſigns of a few turbulent and factious Men, Enemies to our wiſe Laws and happy Conſtitution.

In our humble Situation, we can aſſure your Majeſty of the Continuance of our beſt Exertions to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all ſeditious Sentiments and Opinions, ſenſible how much true Liberty and real Happineſs the People enjoy under our much envied Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's mild auſpicious Government.

That your Majeſty may long be preſerved to reign over this Realm, and that all your Subjects may be ſenſible of the Equity of your Majeſty's Government, and of the Neceſſity of Subordination to Law and Order, ſhall at all Times be our ardent Prayer.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Wigtown, the 12th Day of July, 1792 Years, by John Dun, Baillie.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Galloway.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the General Convention of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commiſſioners aſſembled in Annual Convention, in virtue of the antient Statutes of this Kingdom, to deliberate on the Common Weal of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, conceive it to be our Duty, at this Time, to join the general Voice of the Nation in the warmeſt Expreſſion of our Gratitude to your Majeſty for that paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, which has uniformly diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's Reign.

In a particular Manner we acknowledge, with a grateful Satisfaction, the Wiſdom of thoſe Meaſures recently adopted by your Majeſty for the Preſervation of the Peace of theſe Kingdoms, and the Maintenance of that due Subordination to Government and Obedience to the Laws, which can alone enſure the Continuance of the National Welfare and Proſperity.

Delegated as we are from every Quarter of this Kingdom, we have thus the moſt decided Means of aſcertaining the Sentiments of the Nation at large, reſpecting their Political State; and it is with equal Confidence and Satisfaction that we can announce to your Majeſty, that the great Body of your People in this Part of the united Kingdoms, are deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Government; that they revere the Conſtitution of their Country as eſtabliſhed at the glorious Æra of the Revolution; and that they reprobate, with proportional Indignation, every Attempt to diminiſh in the Minds of the People their Affection to that Conſtitution, or to inſpire them with a Jealouſy of that Government, which has no other Object than the Preſervation of their Civil and Religious Rights, and the Maintenance of their Political Happineſs.

It is with a proud Feeling of Exultation, Sire, that we perceive at this Moment, when other Nations are aſſailed by the Storms of Foreign War and of Civil Diſcord, that the Character of Great Britain ſtands high and reſpectable in the Scale of European States; that while improving her Commerce, and flouriſhing at Home in Arts, in Agriculture, and in Manufactures, her Military Operations Abroad have been attended with the moſt glorious and ſignal Succeſs, and are at length happily terminated by a Peace, which is equally flattering to the Honour of the Britiſh Name as it is promotive of the ſolid and ſubſtantial Intereſts of the Empire.

In theſe Sentiments of true Patriotiſm, we rejoice in our actual Situation, we dread all raſh and preſumptuous Experiments of Innovation on the great Bulwark of our Liberties, and we limit our Wiſhes to the unimpaired Preſervation and laſting Security of that glorious Fabric, the Britiſh Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty is the faithful Guardian and Protector.

Eſto perpetua.

Signed in our Preſence and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh, the 12th Day of July, 1792.

James Stirling, Lord Provoſt, and Præſes of the General Convention.

John Gray, Conjunct Clerk.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Provoſt of the City of Edinburgh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Stranraer, feel ourſelves called upon, at a Period like this, to expreſs in the ſtrongeſt Manner our Zeal and Attachment to the Conſtitution, our Loyalty to our Sovereign, and our Gratitude for the paternal Care and Affection ſhown to his People by the late Royal Proclamation.

Impreſſed with a due Reverence for the Laws, and feeling the Bleſſings of Freedom and Security under a juſt and mild Government, it is with the utmoſt Satisfaction we obſerve that your Majeſty is determined to preſerve that Conſtitution, which alone can ſecure them to your People from the Attacks of deſigning and deluded Men.

In our ſeveral Capacities, as Magiſtrates and as Citizens, your Majeſty may reſt aſſured of our ſtrict

Attention

Attention to the Recommendations contained in your Royal Proclamation; and we truſt Loyalty to your Majeſty, Subordination to the Laws, and a proper Senſe of the Benefits that reſult from our preſent Mode of Government, are too deeply rooted in the Minds of your Subjects to be ſhaken by the ſeditious Cabals of a few diſcontented Individuals.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that the Britiſh Conſtitution may remain unimpaired, the Admiration of future as of paſt Ages, is our moſt fervent and earneſt Prayer.

Signed and ſealed, by the Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Stranraer, the 9th of July, 1792.

Will. Leggat, Clerk.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Stair.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IN no Reign or Period of Civilization has the Nation been in greater Security or Credit, or at any Time more flouriſhing in Arts and Sciences, in Agriculture, in Manufactures and Merchandize, and the Protection of individual and general Property: Bleſſed in the free and conſcious Exerciſe of religious Opinions, with the Enjoyment of preſent and the Proſpect of a laſting Peace, no diſcerning, reaſonable, or moderate Mind can therefore conceive what Cauſe there can be for murmuring; and yet it is to be lamented, that Complaints againſt ſo excellent a Conſtitution ſhould inſidiouſly ariſe in this Zenith of Political Wiſdom and Security.

That ſuch a Combination of ſuperior Virtues and Diſcretions ſhould be wantonly attacked, and the Legiſlature ſo audaciouſly libelled, when Ninety-nine out of every Hundred of your Majeſty's People declare themſelves not only content but happy, and are emulated, by the Protection and Freedom they experience, to an Ingenuity and Induſtry, in their reſpective Avocations and Profeſſions, ſuperior to all other Countries; the greateſt Bane of Vice, and the Strength and Stability of every Civil Government.

Such, Sire, are the Sentiments of your Majeſty's moſt faithful, grateful, and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Merchants, and numerous Manufacturers, the Inhabitants of Saddleworth, who moſt humbly and thankfully addreſs your Majeſty, to expreſs their Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs in iſſuing your moſt ſalutary and ſeaſonable Proclamation, to ſet forth the Abſurdity of the imaginary and fictious Evils complained of by the few, invidious few, which will ever be found, but, we truſt, never dreaded, in a Kingdom ſo wiſely regulated as Great Britain; and we promiſe your Majeſty moſt chearfully to obey every Suggeſtion contained in your Majeſty's moſt gracious Proclamation.

[Tranſmitted by the Rev. Mr. Seddon, Chairman.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergymen and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMpreſſed with Gratitude for your Majeſty's great Care and Attention to preſerve our preſent happy and unrivalled Conſtitution, we humbly deſire Permiſſion to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for the ſeaſonable and gracious Proclamation your Majeſty has been pleaſed to iſſue, and which we regard as an additional Proof of your Majeſty's paternal Affection towards your People.

Convinced that the Form of the Britiſh Government is the beſt calculated to promote and preſerve the Happineſs of a Nation that human Wiſdom can deviſe, we behold, with Deteſtation and Abhorrence, the late ſeditious Writings which the Demagogues of Faction have propagated with ſuch malicious but (we truſt) ineffectual Induſtry.

And rejoicing in, and experiencing under your Majeſty's Reign, the bleſſed Effects of our much-admired Conſtitution, we are determined to oppoſe every inſidious Attempt to undermine the Foundation of that Security, Liberty and Proſperity, which we, with the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, ſo eminently enjoy; and we pray that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and happy over a loyal and free People.

Abr. Balme,
Chairman of the ſaid Meeting.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Ths humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Royal Borough of Banff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of Banff, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the moſt grateful Acknowledgements for the paternal Care your Majeſty has ſo lately ſhewn for the Happineſs of your People, by your late Royal Proclamation.

Being convinced of the dangerous Effects of ſeditious Publications, which tend to inflame and unſettle the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, and alienate them from our preſent happy Conſtitution, we cannot but heartily expreſs our Deteſtation of ſuch Principles, and aſſure your Majeſty, that our ſtricteſt Attention ſhall be to the Recommendations contained in your Proclamation, by ſuppreſſing ſeditious Writings, and to ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Power, the Laws and Conſtitution of Government eſtabliſhed in Great Britain.

We congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Succeſs that has attended your Arms in the Eaſtern World, under a Commander of the moſt diſtinguiſhed Character and tried Courage; and by whoſe Wiſdom a Peace has been concluded in that Quarter of the Globe, honorable to your Majeſty, the Britiſh Nation and himſelf.
